Introduction

Personal Reflection Questions

1. Why did you choose to read and study Managing God's Money?

2. After perusing the table of contents, what chapters interest you most?

3. Take some time to reflect on the following:

...the central focus of this book is not insurance but assurance, not securities but security, not trusts but trust, not principal but principles, not real estate but real estate.

It is our prayer that as you study this book you will truly understand the full meaning of this focus statement.

Chapter 1

Starting Right: A Biblical Mind-Set about Money

1. Directly or indirectly, what did Jesus teach the most about?

- a. Heaven
- b. Hell
- c. Money & possessions
- d. Faith
- e. Prayer

Why?

2. Which biblical characters in Chapter One challenged you the most and why? Zacchaeus, John the Baptist, the poor widow, the believers who burned their incantation books, or another?

3. Take time to look over Romans 14:12. Prayerfully and honestly evaluate how you have used your wealth in the past. In light of giving an account to God, what are some changes in your money management that you can make today?

Conclusion

Money Management and an Eternal Investment Mentality

1. In order to manage God's money well, we must truly believe it's _____ .
2. After completing this study, did you take the time to sign a Title Deed? (A copy is included on page 243 of the book, and on page 31 of this study guide.)
3. Are you ready to say no to the American dream and yes to the Kingdom dreams of the risen Christ? Why or why not?
4. Do you feel that you now have a greater understanding of this quote?

...the central focus of this book is not insurance but assurance, not securities but security, not trusts but trust, not principal but principles, not real estate but real estate.

Why or why not?

» ❧ TITLE DEED ❧ «

Date: _____

I hereby acknowledge God’s ownership of me and all “my” money and possessions, as well as everything else I’ve ever imagined I own—including my family and loved ones.

Instead of seeing myself as the ultimate recipient, I will see myself as God’s delivery person. I will enjoy what he intends me to keep and cheerfully let go of what he intends me to share or give away.

From this point forward, I will think of all these assets as his to do with as he wishes. I will ask God to help me understand the Bible’s instruction about stewardship and how he wishes me to manage and invest his assets to further his Kingdom.

I realize this will mean surrendering some temporary treasures and downsizing my earthly kingdom. In doing so, I will upsize God’s Kingdom and gain eternal treasures. This will decrease my worry and guilt and increase my eternal perspective, joy, and contentment, and deepen my love for Jesus, my savior and King. I do this for his glory and the good of all.

eternal perspective ministries

with author Randy Alcorn

Eternal Perspective Ministries (EPM) is a Bible-believing, Christ-centered nonprofit organization with two goals:

- to teach the principles of God’s Word, emphasizing an eternal viewpoint;
- to reach the needy in Christ’s name, calling attention to the needs of the unreached, unfed, unsupported, unborn, unreconciled, and untrained.

EPM is the recipient of the author royalties from Randy Alcorn’s books, and 100% are given away for ministry purposes: 90% to other worthy Christian organizations and 10% to EPM to help offset the costs related to the writing/researching/editing of the books, as well as to help facilitate the giving away of our books to people all over the world. We love that God uses Randy’s books to change people’s lives in two ways: through the reading of his words and through the giving away of his royalties.

You can order all of Randy’s books and products at www.epm.org/store. (The EPM website also has many free resources, including articles, audio, video, pastors’ kits, and more.) When you purchase Randy’s books from EPM, the profits go directly to support the work of the ministry and fund our operating expenses.

Several times a year, EPM produces Eternal Perspectives, a full-color magazine filled with thought-provoking and informative articles. EPM also sends a periodic email newsletter with the latest news about Randy’s books, projects, and speaking events, as well as special promotions from EPM. 3. Take time to look over Romans 14:12. Prayerfully and honestly evaluate how you have used your wealth in the past. In light of giving an account to God, what are some changes in your money management that you can make today?

So then each of us will give an account of himself to God. (Romans 14:12)

Watch this 7-minute video: Advice about Giving

How would you have responded to the people in the scenario Randy presented?

Review pages 9-11 of the book.

Chapter 2

1. What is the definition of a steward? What must we have an accurate awareness of to understand biblical stewardship?

A steward is someone the owner entrusts with the management of his assets. We must be aware of God's ownership. See pages 14-15 of the book.

2. Share three verses from this chapter that emphasize God's ownership of everything.

See pages 15-16 of the book.

3. How did you first react when you read the pencil story on page 19? Did this story help you to see God's ownership in a new light?

Encourage your group to share.

Listen to this 2-minute audio: Is God really the owner of everything?

Randy shares in this clip that we need to be sure that we don't embezzle or misappropriate God's funds He has entrusted to us. Did you find this concept radical or surprising? Why or why not?

Encourage your group to share.

Chapter 3

1. In this chapter, does Jesus tell us to stay away from earthly wealth? Why or why not?

See page 22 of the book.

2. Choose one of the stewardship parables mentioned in this chapter and discuss or journal about how it speaks to you.

See pages 25-26 of the book for a list of the parables.

3. Currently, on a scale from one to ten (ten being the most faithful) where do you see yourself as a manager of God's assets? What changes can you make to increase this number?

Encourage your group to share.

Listen to this 2-minute audio: Stewardship 101

What are the most basic principles of stewardship?

Always think in terms of God's ownership. God is the owner; we are the stewards. We are God's money managers.

Have you ever prayed, "Lord, this money belongs to you. How would you like me to steward it?"?

Encourage your group to share.

Chapter 4

1. Do you agree or disagree with the statement “Money is the root of all evil”? Back up your answer with Scripture.

See pages 36-37 of the book.

2. Are you more prone to materialism or asceticism? What is wrong with both views?

See pages 37-39 of the book.

3. Meditate on Philippians 4:11-12. Record or share a time in your life that you experienced victory in this area.

See page 38 of the book.

Randy says, “When we become tied up in our wealth and assets, we begin to trust in them instead of in the Lord.” When have you experienced this?

Encourage your group to share.

Chapter 6

1. Look over the Ten Fatal Dangers of Materialism. Which one do you struggle with the most? The least?

Listed on pages 47-56 of the book.

2. Read Matthew 6:31-34 and share what effect this Scripture has on your mindset.

So do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own. (Matt. 6:31-34)

3. Consider the statement: "It's not how much money we make that grabs hold of our hearts. It's how much we keep." Do you agree or disagree? Why?

See page 56 of the book.

Listen to this 4-minute audio: What are the dangers of materialism?

Randy compares materialism to what kind of addiction? Do you agree or disagree?

A drug addiction.

Chapter 7

1. Read Proverbs 22:6. In regards to money and possessions, when does the training of children begin?

At birth. See page 59.

2. Read the words of Albert Schweitzer: "There are only three ways to teach a child. The first is by example; the second is by example; the third is by example." Relate an example from your childhood or your parenting showing how this is true in teaching children about materialism.

Read this article by Randy: Changing Christmas in Our Families and in Our Hearts

Encourage your group to share some ways their families can keep Jesus as the center of Christmas, as well as some successes and failures they've had in battling materialism during the holidays.

Chapter 8

1. What do you think about the following statement: “Prosperity theology is like chocolate-covered rat poison. Without its truth-coating, many believers wouldn’t swallow its lies.” When was a time in your life that you believed in prosperity theology? Did this chapter correct any misconceptions you had (or have) about this type of thinking?

See page 63 of the book.

2. What truth is stated in Matthew 5:45?

He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. (Matt. 5:45)

3. List a few Bible characters or verses that dispel the health/wealth prosperity theology myth.

See page 65-69 of the book.

Watch this 4-minute video: What is an eternal perspective? (And why it doesn’t fit with prosperity theology)

Complete this sentence that Randy shares: “Any gospel that is truer in North America than in some other place is not _____.”

the true gospel.

Chapter 9

On pages 78-79, Randy write that “Christ’s primary argument against amassing material wealth isn’t that it’s morally wrong but simply that it’s a poor _____.”

investment

2. Read Luke 12:33-34, and list three things you learn from this passage.

Earthy treasures won’t last; heavenly ones will. Financial giving stores up eternal treasures in Heaven. Our hearts follow our treasures.

3. Have you experienced the truth of these words from Jim Elliot (a missionary martyr): “He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose”? Why do these words ring true?

Encourage your group to share.

Watch this 3-minute video: More Happy-Making to Give

What does Randy say the word “blessed” can be translated as? Have you experienced this in giving to others?

Happy-making

Chapter 10

1. List at least three things you learn from Colossians 3:1-4.

Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory. (Colossians 3:1-4).

2. How is having a proper understanding of Heaven necessary in order to be motivated to be a wise steward?

See pages 91-92 of the book.

3. “When we live our present lives in anticipation of our eternal resurrected lives, we will live differently.” How have you found this to be true in your own life?

Encourage you group to share.

Watch this 4-minute video: How did you come to this realization about Heaven?

What about Randy’s explanation of a physical Heaven on the New Earth excites you? Why?

Encourage your group to share. See www.epm.org/resources/category/heaven/ for more resources on eternity.

Chapter 11

1. What truths do James 2:17 and 3:13 state? How easy do you find it to use God’s money to do good works for His glory?

See page 101 of the book.

2. List three examples of Biblical characters who were motivated by eternal rewards. Do you find this concept difficult to believe? Why or why not?

See pages 103-104 of the book.

3. What are three motivations for obeying God?

See pages 108-109 of the book.

Agree or disagree: “It is emphatically biblical and appropriate for God’s faithful stewards to look forward to his rewards.”

See page 109 of the book.

Listen to this 4-minute clip: Rewards in Heaven: satisfied or jealous?

What do you think is the main thing that throws people off about the concept of eternal rewards?

People think everything is going to be equal in Heaven. Sometimes we project our sin natures onto what we imagine Heaven will be like.

Chapter 12

1. What is the Bible's first mention of tithing? (See Genesis 14:20) What does tithing mean, and do you find it easy to do?

See pages 115-116 of the book.

2. Experientially have you found the following statement true in your life? "Tithing isn't the finish line of giving; it's the starting block." Why or why not?

Found on page 123 of the book.

3. Randy states in this chapter, "Malachi 3 calls it 'robbing God' and 'cheating' him to give less than the tithe and to do less freewill giving than he desired them to." What is your gut reaction to this?

Found on page 126 of the book.

Read through Randy's article "Profiles of Christians that Rob God"
Which of the believers profiled do you most identify with?

Encourage your group to share.

Chapter 13

1. What are some other ways, besides giving money, to give?

See page 130 of the book.

2. What practical truths can you glean from Proverbs 11:24-25?

See page 131 of the book.

3. According to this chapter, what is the reason for God's abundance to believers?

See pages 132-134 of the book.

Watch this 8-minute video: The Theology of Generosity

Randy says that a lack of giving in our lives indicates we aren't grasping what?

The reality of God's grace at work in our lives.

Chapter 14

1. “Ignoring the poor is not an option for the godly.” Do you agree or disagree?

See page 143 of the book.

2. 2 Thessalonians 3:10-12 gives a warning. How do you balance reaching out to the lazy without taking away their motivation to be responsible?

See page 145 of the book.

3. Do you debate whether it is more important to care for people’s physical needs, or their spiritual needs? Jesus commanded his followers to do both! What are some ways you can meet both sets of needs for someone God brings across your path today? “

Encourage your group to share.

Read through Randy’s blog post “Caring for the Needy: What God Says”
Choose one of the verses that he shares and memorize it over the next week.

Encourage your group to share the verse they chose.

Chapter 15

1. Mark 8:34-37 are strong statements from the Lord Jesus Christ. What does Christ say believers must do?

See page 160 of the book.

2. Do you live your life as an “owner” rather than a “manager” of what God owns? Why or why not?

Encourage your group to share.

3. Do you live a “simple” self-centered lifestyle, or a strategic Kingdom centered lifestyle? What is the difference?

Encourage your group to share.

Listen to this 4-minute audio clip: How much of my income should I keep for my lifestyle?
What principles does Randy draw from 1 Timothy 6:17-19 in this clip?

Don’t put your hope in wealth

God provides things for our enjoyment

We’re to be rich in good deeds, generous and willing to share

We’re to store up our treasures in Heaven

Chapter 16

1. On pages 173-174 there are six points on “What do wise money managers understand about spending and debt?” Which point is the most convicting to you? Which point do you understand and have had victory in?

Encourage your group to share.

2. Have you set a budget? Do you write down your expenditures, and are you accountable to another? If not, do you think that it would help you to mature in managing God’s money by beginning such practices?

Encourage your group to share.

3. What truth is found in Matthew 6:33? Have you learned to wait upon the Lord instead of impulsive buying?

See page 177 of the book.

Read through Randy’s article “Practical Ways to Control Spending”
Which guideline most resonated with you?

Encourage your group to share.

Chapter 17

1. Romans 13:8 states the one thing believers are to owe. What is it? How can you implement it this week?

See page 179 of the book.

2. In this chapter there are three simple rules for credit card usage. Which one do you find the most helpful?

See pages 183-184 of the book.

3. List the eight steps to get out of debt.

See pages 186-187 of the book.

Watch this 3-minute video: Should I tithe or pay off my debt first?

What is it about withholding giving that makes it a poor way to approach reducing your debt?

If your way of paying off your debt is to not give, that’s unwise because you don’t want to be under God’s curse by robbing him. You need God’s help in paying off your debt.

Chapter 18

1. Do you agree with the statement, “It’s wise to give first, save second, and spend last”? Have you chosen this as a way of life?

See page 190 of the book.

2. How does 2 Corinthians 8:3-5 encourage or convict you?

For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the saints. And they did not do as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us in keeping with God’s will. (2 Cor. 8:3-5)

3. Is God calling you to liquidate any of your assets for the furtherance of His Kingdom? Share your thoughts.

Encourage your group to share.

Watch this 4-minute video: How do I know how much to give and how much to save?

Have you struggled with the tension between giving and saving?

Encourage your group to share.

Chapter 19

1. Have you or someone you care about ever had a problem with gambling? State Scripture that warns against this.

See pages 202-203 of the book.

2. If you have invested in an IRA, or other investments, have you researched the company’s practices? Share any tips or ideas you have for doing this.

Encourage your group to share.

3. If you are having difficulty knowing how to invest or save, how can the following verses be an encouragement to you? (Psalm 1:1; Proverbs 15:22; James 1:5)

Encourage your group to share.

Listen to this 3-minute audio: Do people sometimes disguise hoarding as investing?

Finish this sentence: “The hoarding mentality appeals to our _____.”

Insecurities.

Chapter 20

1. In regards to inheritances, what warning is given in Proverbs 20:21?

See page 209 of the book.

2. Were you uncomfortable reading Randy Alcorn's thoughts on leaving large inheritances to your children? If so, why?

Encourage your group to share.

3. John Chrysostom (AD 390) wrote, "If you wish to leave much wealth to your children, leave them in God's care. Do not leave them riches, but virtue and skill." What character traits, values, and skills do you feel strongly about passing on to your children?

Encourage your group to share.

Watch this 4-minute clip: What about inheritances?

Randy asks in the video, "What would you think if you had a financial manager who died and left all your money to his children?" Share your thoughts.

Encourage your group to share.

Chapter 21

1. "Home is where character is built, habits are developed, and destinies are forged." How does Proverbs 22:6 confirm this message?

See page 219 of the book.

2. Choose your favorite verse under the section "How can we help children become generous givers?" (page 223). Memorize it this week.

Encourage your group to share the verse they chose to memorize.

3. According to Randy, what is the greatest legacy a parent can leave their children? (page 232). What is one practical way you can pass this on to the next generation?

Encourage your group to share.

Listen to this 4-minute audio: Do you think the younger generation will learn to be givers?

What does Randy say that the older generation has failed to do in order to teach the younger generation to be givers?

The older generation has failed to live out the life of giving. Or if members of the older generation have practiced generosity, they have withheld that information from the younger generation, and failed to mentor them in the discipline and joy of giving.

Chapter 22

1. On page 237, what Scripture is evidence of God's desire for us to let our good deeds shine for his praise? Does this verse help you to understand the importance of sharing what God has done in your life for His glory?

Encourage your group to share.

2. If you follow the Word and let your good deeds shine for God's praise, what must you be careful to avoid?

See page 240 of the book.

3. Do you fear appearing foolish by taking seriously the New Testament view of money and possessions? Read 1 Corinthians 1:18-31; 4:8-13. How do these verses help our perspective?

Encourage your group to share.

Listen to this 4-minute clip: Should my giving be kept secret?

What advice does Randy give to those sharing their giving stories?

Search your heart, and approach sharing your story with humility. Explain why you are sharing.

Conclusion

1. In order to manage God's money well, we must truly believe it's _____.

God's money. See page 241 of the book.

2. After completing this study, did you take the time to sign a Title Deed?

Encourage your group to sign the Title Deed.

3. Are you ready to say no to the American dream and yes to the Kingdom dreams of the risen Christ? Why or why not?

Encourage your group to share.

4. Do you feel that you now have a greater understanding of this quote? "...the central focus of this book is not insurance but assurance, not securities but security, not trusts but trust, not principal but principles, not real estate but real estate." Why or why not?

Encourage your group to share.
